Tampa's cigar heritage lives on at J.C. Newman Cigar Co. in Ybor City. For the first time in 111 years, J.C. Newman's iconic El Reloj cigar factory is now open to the public. Featuring three floors of public exhibits, guests can explore the art of cigar making firsthand, find a gift in the factory store, or host a private celebration in the last operating cigar factory in Tampa. YBOR CITY

NATIONAL HISTORIC LANDMARK DISTRICT

YBOR CHAMBER

EXPLORE YBOR – HISTORIC LATIN QUARTER

Known as Tampa's Latin Quarter for over a century, Ybor City offers an exotic blend of aromas, flavors, sights, and sounds. From the scent of brewing Cuban coffee early in the morning to the rhythms of Latin music late into the night, Ybor is a feast for the senses.

La Segunda

Choose from a variety of cuisine – Spanish, Cuban, Italian, Greek, Indian and Asian – just by strolling down famed La Setima, Ybor City's 7th Avenue. Share authentic tapas and a pitcher of genuine Spanish sangria in a café atmosphere reminiscent of a Mediterranean village.

Browse eclectic shops and art galleries or visit a museum. See a hand-rolled cigar being made or just relax and people watch with a cup of Ybor's famous café con leche.

J.C. Newman

Listen to the music of the night – jazz, blues, salsa, reggae, rock and even hip-hop emanate from a selection of pubs, patio bars and nightclubs. Ybor is alive with a variety of entertainment that makes it one of Florida's top-ranked nightspots.

Founded by Vicente Martinez Ybor (e-bor) as a cigar-manufacturing center, Ybor City is a National Historic Landmark District. Red brick buildings, wrought iron balconies, narrow brick streets and roaming chickens give it an old-world charm that is a refreshing change of pace from the beach, theme parks and mall.
