

CAPCSD COVID-19 Guidance on the National April 15th Deadline for Student Acceptance of Admission

Given the challenges with the COVID-19 pandemic, CAPCSD maintains its support of students not being required to confirm acceptance decisions prior to April 15th. If individual programs wish to extend their deadlines beyond April 15th, they are free to do so on their own.

As an organization, CAPCSD passed the resolution below supporting the notion of students not being required to confirm acceptance of admission or financial aid offers until April 15th for the upcoming fall term admission. This decision is in line with the guidelines of the Council of Graduate Schools, an organization whose membership includes most CAPCSD member institutions.

Resolution Background on April 15th Deadline

Resolution 06-01: Whereas, the Council of Graduate Schools (COGS) in 1999 renewed its resolution to establish April 15th as the common national deadline for graduate students to accept an offer of admission and financial support (scholarship, fellowship, traineeship, or assistantship) for the next academic year; and

Whereas, the Council of Academic Programs in Communication Sciences and Disorders (CAPCSD) once again endorsed the COGS resolution in 2013 which read:

CAPCSD Resolution 2013 -1

TITLE: Resolution to Endorse a Common Applicant Response Deadline for Admissions

WHEREAS, to clarify the intended meaning of previous Council of Academic Programs in Communication Sciences and Disorders resolutions (98-5, 06-01) which resolved that applicants to entry-level clinical graduate programs in Communication Sciences and Disorders that begin in the fall semester be allowed until April 15th to make final decisions regarding acceptance of offers of admission, with or without funding.

WHEREAS, a common deadline for applicants to respond to offers of admission both levels the playing field and reduces pressures on applicants to Communication Sciences and Disorders programs.

BE IT RESOLVED that the Council of Academic Programs in Communication Sciences and Disorders expects member programs to allow applicants to entry-level graduate clinical programs in Communication Sciences and Disorders at least until April 15th to make final decisions regarding acceptance of offers of admission for the following academic year, with or without offers of financial aid, for programs that begin in the fall semester. Therefore, be it resolved that the CAPCSD re-endorses the April 15th deadline for responding to offers of financial assistance to students admitted to graduate programs in CSD that begin in the fall semester.

The Council of Graduate Schools Resolution. The Council of Graduate Schools has published a statement entitled "Resolution Regarding Graduate Scholars, Fellows, Trainees and Assistants," which was renewed in 2014. The Resolution is concerned with the conditions surrounding the acceptance of offers of certain kinds of graduate student financial assistance, namely, scholarships, fellowships, traineeships, and assistantships. The general spirit of the Resolution is that students should have an opportunity to consider more than one offer and should have until April 15th to do so, that institutions and students should be able to view acceptances in force after April 15th as binding, that everyone should know what the rules are, and that an offer by the institution and its acceptance by the student constitute as agreement which both expect to honor. The Resolution acknowledges that students, after having accepted an offer, may change their minds and withdraw that acceptance. The intent of the Resolution is to provide a uniform and widely acceptable framework for so doing, one that provides protection for both student and institution.

Rationale behind the CGS resolution. Students are under no obligation to respond to offers of financial support prior to April 15th for programs that begin in the fall semester; earlier deadlines for acceptance of such offers violate the intent of this Resolution. In those instances, in which a student accepts an offer before April 15th, and subsequently desires to withdraw that acceptance, the student may submit in writing a resignation of the appointment at any time through April 15th. However, an acceptance given or left in force after April 15th commits the student not to accept another offer without first obtaining a written release from the institution to which commitment has been made. Similarly, an offer by an institution after April 15th is conditional on presentation by the student of the written release from any previously accepted offer. It is further agreed by the institutions and organizations subscribing to the above Resolution that a copy of this Resolution or a link to the URL should accompany every scholarship, fellowship, traineeship, and assistantship offer.

The link to the PDF version of the CGS resolution is <http://www.cgsnet.org/april-15-resolution>. You can also read a listing of all the universities that are signatory to the agreement. Please note that most CAPCSD member institutions are represented.