

Association of Independent Hospitality Professionals

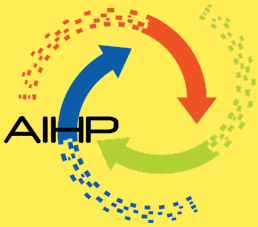

INDUSTRY STUDY

Dear Industry Professional,

This industry study is being sponsored by Association of Independent Hospitality Professionals (AIHP) in partnership with the Professional Association of Innkeepers International (PAII). Both associations are supporting the industries need for current reliable research to better serve our community of independent lodging property members, aspiring lodging property members, prospective association members, and Allied Partners, who provide the amazing products and services to the lodging industry.

Background

Given the recent and anticipated industry changes of the shared economy, increased use of online technology and future ownership, industry research is more important than ever. This industry study supports both current and prospective owners/managers who are looking for data to make informed business decisions. Completing the industry survey is essential to our ongoing efforts to supply you with the data to make critical decisions for your business.
