

Sonja Prince is a spiritual practitioner and speaker with a gift for helping people move toward success and manifest their dreams. She is the host of the Divine Truth Talk women's program and podcast. As a certified health minister with raw foods, in her free time, Sonja makes raw food meals, and enjoys dehydrating food and juicing using fresh produce from her garden.

In addition to being a speaker and spiritual leader, Sonja is an award-winning singer. She sings for community organizations and fundraisers including Chambers of Commerce, Relay for Life and the Soroptimists. You may recognize her from winning first place at Menifee's Got Talent and Canyon Lakes Got Talent or as the City Queen & Spokesperson for the Menifee's Chamber of Commerce.

Sonja is currently completing her master's program in ministry with a specialty in spiritual consciousness.