

Erin Katz, M.D. completed her General Surgery Residency at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, MN in 2000, and completed her Urology Residency at the University of Chicago in 2004. She then did fellowship training in voiding dysfunction, female Urology and reconstruction at the Cleveland Clinic, Florida in 2005. She worked as a private practice Urologist at a multi-specialty physician group in Clearwater, Florida for 10 years, and has been in practice as a private Urologist in California for 5 years. She is a board-certified Urologist with Riverside Medical Clinic, with her main office in Temescal Valley, CA. She is affiliated with Riverside Community Hospital, Parkview Community Hospital and Corona Regional Medical Center.