Promoting Tourism and the
LOCAL ECONOMY

JEFF BUCKLEW PHOTOGRAPHY

Eat. Shop. Play. Stay. The Hudson Area Chamber of Commerce & Tourism Bureau is proud to promote the Hudson area as a tourist destination for a variety of recreation. Options abound and include indoor and outdoor activities, fine dining and family-friendly restaurants, quaint downtown shopping, boutiques, regional performing and visual arts, local breweries, wineries and crafted cocktail lounges.

The “Discover Hudson” theme is used in a variety of advertisements and promotions. We are a valued community resource, responding to countless inquiries about local activities, amenities, businesses, transportation, and attractions. Through the Chamber office, the staff also distributes dining, lodging, and shopping guides, tourism information, county, city, and regional maps, relocation packets, destination and informational brochures, and special event details that continue to encourage an increase in visitors and tourism to our area each year.

The office includes information about Hudson and the surrounding area. Brochures and other informational materials provided by partnering destination marketing organizations are also available for easy trip-planning around the region and the state.

The tourism website, DiscoverHudsonWI.com, provides consumers with easy access to 24/7 information about attractions and special interest activities unique to Hudson and the St. Croix Valley area.

The Chamber & Tourism Bureau is a partner to the St. Croix Valley Regional Tourism Alliance, a non-profit collaboration of more than 100 area businesses, chambers and tourism organizations, and non-profit alliances in Wisconsin and Minnesota dedicated to promoting the St. Croix Valley. Each year, the Alliance publishes a comprehensive tourism magazine that highlights regional cities, resources, events and attractions.

Through our membership in the Wisconsin Hotel & Lodging Association gives us a greater reach to attract overnight visitors. In addition, we participate in the Wisconsin Convention and Visitor’s Bureau which keeps us updated on legislative issues and state directives. Both of these organizations provide us the opportunity to network statewide for the newest tourism industry trends.
