

Historic Hudson Guide

Historic charm and stunning scenery are two defining characteristics of Hudson, Wisconsin. Come visit us and experience special attractions, book a private tour, and enjoy walking tours that lead to our historic downtown. Our main street area is full of unique shops and award-winning restaurants. Many downtown buildings were built between 1860 and 1880 and have been restored to their original grandeur. Third Street includes the “grand dames” of Hudson’s historic homes including the historic Octagon House Museum.

ENJOY THE HISTORIC WALKING TOUR

The Historic Walking Tour is something you can enjoy with your own group OR book a guided tour through the Octagon House Museum. If you’d like to take a stroll on your own, download the map with highlights in Hudson.

EXPLORE THE OCTAGON HOUSE MUSEUM & EVENTS

Built in 1855, this unique eight-sided house is owned by the St. Croix County Historical Society and is a museum with gardens, a garden house, a carriage house, and a gift shop. Artifacts inside are antiques from 1850 to 1950 of the St. Croix Valley. Make sure to explore their events and private tour information. They have options for everyone to enjoy!

SAINT CROIX NATIONAL SCENIC RIVERWAY

Our local river became a National Scenic Riverway in 1968 and is the largest of its kind east of the Mississippi River. The riverway is managed overall by the National Park Service. You can learn more about our river at the Hudson Area Public Library or take a tour down the river on the Grand Duchess and experience this waterway in all her glory!
