What makes Southeast Volusia County an exciting place to do business?

DID YOU KNOW?

WEBINARS, WORKSHOPS

- How to Start a Home-Based Cottage Food Business - The

Cottage Food Law allows food entrepreneurs to operate small food businesses and produce a variety of food products that are low risk from a food safety standpoint, if prepared properly in an unlicensed and uninspected kitchen, while protecting public health to the greatest extent possible. A webinar hosted by SCORE Volusia/Flagler at 5:30pm Aug. 23rd will give you all the tools including how to market and generate sales along with what expenses are deductible. Link for webinar

- New Pooled Employer 401k Plans for Small Business Employers - Congress passed the SECURE ACT in 2019, and in so doing created a 401(k) vehicle called a Pooled Employer Plan (PEP). These new PEPs went live on Jan. 1, 2021, and are more affordable, less confusing and less risky for small businesses than traditional 401(k) plans. PEPs allow unrelated employers that don't share a common industry or location to participate in a single, shared 401(k) plan so they can take advantage of the collective purchasing power to negotiate lower fees and better services. This helps organizations, especially small and midsize employers, offer low-cost retirement plans to their workers with fewer compliance burdens than stand-alone defined contribution plans. A webinar at 9 a.m. Aug. 25 will breakdown the "who, what, when and how" for you to better understand the future of 401\(k\).
- Business Modeling Boot Camp - New business ideas are always exciting, but they are not always viable. Learn the fundamentals of developing a business idea into a viable business model during the University of Central Florida's upcoming Business Modeling Boot Camp. The boot camp includes lectures and case studies, but focuses more on doing than observing. The program will be held virtually from noon to 1:30 p.m. every Tuesday and Thursday from Aug. 24 through Oct. 14. To be eligible to enroll, you must be located in Central Florida, have an idea for a for-profit business, be willing to accept feedback, and have an idea for a scalable product or service.
