

2021 State of the Region Workforce

Underwritten by: D.F. RICHARD

Business Over Breakfast Series Support: EXETER HOSPITAL

Presenters

Thursday, October 21, 2021

Joseph Doiron
Director, Workforce Development
NH Dept. of Business & Economic Affairs

New Hampshire Department of
BUSINESS AND ECONOMIC AFFAIRS

Joe is the Director of Workforce Development at the NH Department of Business & Economic Affairs (BEA). Joe previously served as Deputy Director for the Governor's Office of Emergency Relief and Recovery (GOFERR), as the Workforce Development Administrator at BEA and as Deputy Director of the Office of Strategic Initiatives. He has a BA in political science from New England College and a master's degree in public administration from Norwich University. He lives in Pembroke with his husband Gabré and their rescue dog King.

Richard Lavers
Deputy Commissioner
New Hampshire Employment Security

Rich is currently the deputy commissioner of the New Hampshire Department of Employment Security, a position he has held since being appointed in 2013. Prior to this role, Rich was an attorney in the department's legal section. The department oversees the state's unemployment program as well as several reemployment programs designed to assist job seekers connect with hiring employers. Rich lives in Hopkinton with his wife and children.

