

Defense Intelligence Agency Field Activity
Staff Sergeant Timothy Sullivan is an All-Source Intelligence Analyst and Order of Battle Specialist. Having completed, in his free time, over 200 hours in emergency and firefighter certifications he became a volunteer firefighter. He supports the fire department with numerous fund-raising events and outreach programs. He is a volunteer conservator at James River State Parks, where after significant training hours, he is a trail monitor clearing brush and trail obstructions and as a camp host he maintains and prepares camp sites for guests. He also conducts major clean-up projects of the Chesapeake Bay Watershed and the James River.

2300 Military Intelligence Group (USAR)

Master Sergeant Rodney Adams has nearly 18 years of military experience with 11 years active duty and 7 with the US Army Reserves. He has deployed to Kosovo, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Afghanistan, Iraq, and Syria in support of the Global War on Terrorism. Since moving to Virginia and joining the 2300 Military Intelligence Group Rodney has spent hundreds of hours donating his time to support the Red, White, Blue 'n Greene in Greene County and other non-profits throughout Albemarle, Greene, and Orange Counties. Rodney currently resides in Ruckersville, VA with his dog Evie.

National Ground Intelligence Center (NGIC)

Sergeant First Class Shawna N. Davis enlisted in the Army in 2007 as an Intelligence Analyst and subsequently has held positions throughout all levels of command in both intelligence staff and leadership positions. She currently serves as the Senior Intelligence Sergeant in the Regional Directorate with a focus on Great Power Competition within Africa as well as focusing on countries in the Gulf of Guinea and as Training Branch NCOIC. In the local community, she volunteers with the Central Little League. She has been a member of the board for 2 years; holding the position of Player Agent and served as an assistant coach for a baseball and softball team; she is currently the head coach for a 6–8-year-old coach pitch team for the fall season.

The Judge Advocate General's Legal Center & School
SFC Joseph Reynolds
Court Reporter Trainer & Course Manager

Cadet Jessica Bachman (Air Force ROTC)

Nursing major. Part of Service Flight and Drill Team. As Commander of the Arnold Air Society implemented a different service project every month of her leadership. Trained new cadets and coordinated the annual Veterans Day Ceremony at UVA Amphitheatre. Her community service includes volunteering at a free clinic, working as a CPR instructor and fundraising for Multiple Sclerosis Society. She will graduate, and be commissioned, in May 2023.

Cadet Alexander Mosher (Army ROTC)

Chinese & East Asia Studies major from Loudoun County, VA. Qualified for and received four Project Global Officer programs studying abroad with various universities in China and Taiwan. Has been named to the Dean's List of Distinguished Students at UVA. He is a bassoonist with the Cavalier Symphony Orchestra and the recipient of the American Legion Scholastic Excellence Award. He will request the Military Intelligence Branch upon commissioning with the desire to transition into the Foreign Area officer Program.

M/S 2C Adam Rogers

Engineering major in his 3rd year at UVA, From Stafford, VA.

A Sigma Chi member that participates annually in the organization and execution of “Derby Days”, a week-long event with challenges amongst university clubs to raise money and awareness for the University of Virginia Children’s hospital. Midshipman Rogers is a member of the University of Virginia Cheer Team, charged with exciting UVA fans during sporting events.

M/S 1C (USMC Option) Tiffani Burdick

Majoring in Elementary Education, she is from Goochland, VA. She will graduate and be commissioned in May 2023 and is hoping to be assigned as a Logistic Officer in the US Marine Corps. She teaches in a local elementary school and is actively engaged with a program called "Girls on the Run" in the school that brings girls of all physical levels to instill in them a love of running and physical fitness that will help them build good habits for the future,