Competition Guidelines and Rules

1. All Pitch Application submissions will be reviewed by the Business Pitch Competition's Committee prior to the competition final qualification date.
2. If a registrant's application is selected as one of the competition finalists prior to the final qualification date, the registrant will be invited to compete in the UCC Capital Connections Business Pitch Competition.
3. Up to 5 finalists will be selected (3 final presenters, 2 alternates) to compete in the Live Pitch Event. In the event one or more finalists cannot compete on the day of the conference, alternate applicants may be selected by UCC organizers to replace them. UCC organizers reserve the right to adjust the number of finalists at any time.
4. One representative of each finalist company will have 2 minutes to make their pitch presentation before the judges' panel. Pitches will be hard stopped at 2 minutes. Time will begin when the presenter begins speaking. The presentation will be followed by a 3-minute Q&A with the judges.
5. Presenters must be physically present for the Live Pitch Event at the UCC Capital Connections Business Pitch Competition, which will be held on Saturday, July 31, 2021 by 09:00 am. Failure to arrive by 09:00 am may result in disqualification. No prerecorded presentations will be permitted.
6. Companies may have a "back up" presenter ready to make the pitch if an emergency arises or unforeseen circumstance prevents the original presenter from participating.
7. The use of PowerPoint or slide presentations is not permitted. Props, posters, or prototypes may be used or displayed, however, set up time will not be provided. Handouts and samples may not be distributed to the judges or audience at any time during your presentation.
8. All public sessions of the competition may be recorded and rebroadcast by event organizers, the public at large, or members of the media. Participants should not expect or assume any rights of confidentiality related to data or information presented or discussed during the public session.
9. Winner will be announced at the UCC Capital Connections Business Pitch Competition the same day and must be present to claim their award.
10. Competition organizers reserve the right to disqualify any application submission that it deems inappropriate, unethical, or offensive – or to disqualify any finalist that violates the rules of the Live Pitch Event.
