New Dinner Show, Comedy Fest Coming Soon to OWA
Get ready for a night of laughs and a delicious dinner show in 2020

(Foley, Alabama) — If you're looking to shake up your winter nights, OWA's entertainment options have you covered. Two exciting, limited-run shows are making headlines this January and February. The 3rd annual Gulf Coast Comedy Fest makes its return to OWA for the second year in a row, as well as the exciting addition of Brandon Styles' Trip Down Memory Lane Dinner Show.

You know his Variety and Magic Shows, but now Brandon Styles has a brand new dinner show for his audience. The two-hour "trip down memory lane" features spot-on impressions and songs from your favorite classic artists. Enjoy a delicious meal and adult beverages—catered by OWA's very own Groovy Goat restaurant—while Brandon Styles' impersonations take you back in time.

"We couldn't be happier to welcome Brandon Styles' third show to OWA," said Kristin Hellmich, OWA's Director of Marketing/PR. "He has such a talent, and dinner guests will be blown away by the quality and experience of 'Trip Down Memory Lane.'"

The Trip Down Memory Lane Dinner Show will have a limited run in January and February only. Seats are going quickly, so guests are encouraged to buy ahead of time. Tickets to the dinner show start at $37.00 (with VIP upgrades available) and include salad, main course, side, dessert and 1 drink of choice. Group pricing is also available upon request. Doors open at 5:15pm and dinner is served at 5:30pm.

In addition to Trip Down Memory Lane, the Gulf Coast Comedy Fest will be making its return to OWA for one night only. Join us for an evening of laughs with multiple comedians during the show on Jan. 17 at 7pm. The two-hour performance will feature a variety of comedians, plus a special surprise act. Tickets are on sale now, and seating is limited. Go to VisitOWA.com/Events to learn more about each show and to purchase tickets.
