GCE Welcomes New Senior Operations Executive

Pensacola, Fla. (June 18, 2020) – Global Connections to Employment (GCE) an affiliate of Lakeview Center, Inc., recently welcomed Dameon Proctor as senior operations executive overseeing the Enterprise Information Technology Services (EITS) line of business.

Proctor brings two decades of experience including leadership in technology strategy, product development and program/project management. In his role at GCE, he will be responsible for the daily management and execution of the EITS Contract, which employs more than 500 people with teams on both the east and west coast. He will carry out his role from the Lorton, Virginia office.

In his most recent role as senior program manager with Northrop Grumman, Proctor led a program of 150 engineers to develop complex software-based systems, cloud computing applications and enterprise infrastructure solutions. At Northrop Grumman, Proctor held leadership roles to include: systems engineering capability leader, operating unit operations senior manager, and senior systems engineering manager for the Triton Unmanned Aerial Surveillance Ground Segment program.

Proctor is a native of Washington, D.C. and lives in Ashburn, Virginia. He is a member of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. the Project Management Institute, and the 100 Black Men of Greater Washington - where enjoys mentoring youth. Proctor earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from The Pennsylvania State University, a Master of Science degree in Telecommunications Management from University of Maryland University College and an MBA from Johns Hopkins University Carey Business School. He also achieved the Northrop Grumman Integrated Program Management Certification and is a certified Project Management Professional.
