

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Baptist Heart & Vascular Institute Presents 6th Annual Cardiovascular Symposium

PENSACOLA, Fla. (Jan. 18, 2021) – Baptist Heart & Vascular Institute will present its annual Cardiovascular Symposium virtually this year in two four-hour sessions.

The first session will be offered Friday, Feb. 26 with the second session set for Friday, April 23. Speakers include experts from Baptist Heart & Vascular Institute as well as other health care professionals in the industry. This free educational symposium is structured to provide nurses, case managers and allied health professionals the opportunity to enhance their clinical skills and learn about innovative practices for cardiovascular care.

Registration is available by clicking on the symposium tree at eBaptistHealthcare.org/Heart. Attendees should register separately for each session. All registered attendees will be sent an agenda and Zoom link as the event date approaches.

Baptist Health Care is accredited by the Florida Medical Association and Florida Dept of Health to provide continuing medical education for physicians and other healthcare workers. This activity is pending approval for up to 6 CEUs for full participation in both sessions for the following: AT, Lab Tech, APRN, RN, LPN, CNA, CSW, LMFT, LMHC, CMSW, OT, OTA, Pharmacist, RPT, CRT, RRT, SP.
