

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 9, 2021

Media Contacts: Bradley Sanders (850) 512-2754

Megan Chapman (850) 490-9517

The East Hill Yard Sale to benefit Gulf Coast Kid's House

(February 9, 2021 - Pensacola, FL) – Gulf Coast Kid's House (GCKH) announces they will be hosting the East Hill Yard Sale that will benefit their victims of child abuse and neglect on February 27, 2021, from 8 AM to noon.

The sale will take place at 3401 North 12th Avenue, Pensacola Fl., 32503, in the GCKH parking lot. The event will consist of over 40 vendors selling items such as home goods/décor, artwork, baked goods and much more. Vendors will be spaced accordingly to ensure social distancing. Pensacola EggFest will be on site grilling up breakfast and lunch items to purchase. The event is free to attend, and parking will be available across the street at St. Christopher's Episcopal Church.

“Imagine the Palafox Market and a yard sale met in East Hill,” said GCKH Director of Philanthropy, Megan Chapman. “We are hoping to bring our supporters and community members together in a fun yet safe way while raising much needed funds for our organization.”

Currently Escambia County ranks number four for reported child abuse cases in the state of Florida. GCKH has seen a 57.81% increase in new child abuse investigations by the Department of Children and Families from July to October 2020.

GCKH mission is to end child abuse and heal families through collaborative intervention, family support and prevention education. Learn more by visiting www.gulfcoastkidshouse.org or by calling 850-595-5800.

###

Gulf Coast Kid's House, Inc. is an independent 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization that is not state or federally funded. In the last year, Gulf Coast Kid's House provided services to over 3,300 child victims of abuse and neglect. The trained professionals under one roof investigate, treat, and prosecute cases of child sexual and physical abuse, and severe neglect; education in child abuse prevention is also provided.