

Announcing Waterfront Rescue Mission's new President:

Clay Romano has been named the seventh President of Waterfront Rescue Mission. Clay comes to Waterfront from Baptist Health Care, where he most recently served as Property Management Director for the organization, as well as the administrative representative for their Support Services division. His responsibilities included property and facilities oversight for three acute care hospitals, four medical parks, the Baptist Medical Towers, and the Andrews Institute.

"I am humbled to have been selected to this role, and I am excited for the opportunity to continue the good work of Waterfront, which began in Pensacola in 1949," he said. "Helping the homeless and addicted in our community is near to my heart, and I consider it a great privilege to lead Waterfront into the next chapter."

After receiving his BSBA in Professional Accountancy and Finance from the University of West Florida, Clay earned his CPA designation in 2007 and has served on Waterfront's Board of Directors as Treasurer since 2017.
