Gallery Night's November Event Celebrates Friendsgiving

Event Focuses on Shopping Local and The Art of Gift Giving

PENSACOLA, Fla. (Nov. 1, 2021) — The Gallery Night Pensacola Board of Directors is pleased to announce the November 19 Gallery Night event, presented by Publix.

The November theme celebrates “Friendsgiving,” and the event that will kick off the holiday season, focus on shopping local, the art of gift giving, and return of coming together with friends and family.

Gallery Night's November featured artist is CeCe Hines. After she moved to Pensacola in 2012 and having met the Plein Air Artist group, she joined Quayside Gallery, was involved with Blue Morning Gallery, Perdido Key Artist Gallery, as well as the portrait artist group. Hines has had two solo shows in Artel Gallery and is a member of its Art Study Club.

Hines work includes a series of ongoing candid portraits of the patrons at CJ's Diner, located at the corner Garden St. and Pace Boulevard. The portraits on canvas are usually 5”x7” and many of which are on the walls (CJ's currently displays more than 400 portraits painted by Hines)

Hines said “I like portraiture because, I like people.”

Each Gallery Night event features more than 30 local artists displaying their one-of-a-kind creations in open-air tents lining the streets., with one talented artist presented as the Featured Artist for the evening.

Participating downtown bars and restaurants are open and serving guests, local shops and galleries will be open late and provide event patrons a chance to shop for unique gifts and wares. Live music and performances will be on various stages and can spring up spontaneously - so be ready to be entertained! Each Gallery Night Pensacola event's special themes sets the tone for the performers, art, and activities that are sure to please.

The Pensacola Gallery Night Board encourages mask usage for those who are not vaccinated or are at high health risk.
