Clark Partington Wins First-Ever Battle of the Barristers

Pensacola, FL – Clark Partington took home the trophy at United Way of West Florida’s Battle of the Barristers.

The event tested the knowledge of members of the firm during a trivia contest at Odd Colony. Clark Partington’s “Super Troupers” beat out teams from Beggs & Lane, Autumn Beck Blackledge PLLC, Carver Darden, and Moorhead Law Group.

“Clark Partington is always proud to partner with United Way and supports its mission in our northwest Florida community,” said Clark Partington team captain, Troupe Brewer. “We are equally proud to win the inaugural Battle of the Barristers and bask in the glory of having our firm’s name forever enshrined on the coveted Legal Eagles trophy.”

This is the first Battle of the Barristers in Pensacola. United Way of West Florida looks forward to growing the event next year.

“An amazing group of teams helped us launch Battle of the Barristers this year,” said United Way of West Florida President and CEO Laura Gilliam. “The players seemed to have a lot of fun and we expect more teams will want to be a part of the next one.”

Gulf Coast Trophies created a traveling trophy for the Battle of the Barristers. Clark Partington keeps the trophy for the next year and can defend its title at the next event.

“We are very thankful to our partners who helped us make Battle of the Barristers successful,” said Gilliam. “Odd Colony provided an incredible place to play, and our trivia emcee Brandon Mayo created a really fun and entertaining game.”

Battle of the Barristers raised $3,000 for United Way of West Florida.
