Tom Deen Selected to Leadership Northwest Florida Regional Business Collaborative

PENSACOLA, Fla. – LandrumHR is pleased to announce Tom Deen, Chief Information Officer, was selected as part of Florida’s Great Northwest’s Leadership Northwest Florida Class II.

Tom is one of twenty-two regional business leaders chosen to be part of the program focused on regional collaboration through community, content, and connection.

“I’m looking forward to the opportunity to connect with talented and accomplished business leaders in Northwest Florida while learning more about key regional assets that can further enhance the growth of businesses in the Panhandle,” said Deen.

Participants in the class will be immersed in a seven-month educational program and meet other leaders from a variety of backgrounds who represent Northwest Florida’s diverse composition.

“Tom’s extensive background in IT leadership, service delivery, and technology portfolio management at a variety of national corporations will lend a great deal of value to the class,” said Britt Landrum, III, President and CEO of LandrumHR. “Tom always brings innovative ideas and insightful questions to the table.”

The Leadership Northwest Florida program provides a holistic view of the conditions, challenges, and opportunities that are shared throughout the region focusing on the areas of Business Vitality, Entrepreneurship and Innovation, Infrastructure, Talent, and Quality of Place.
