10th Annual Casino Royale Gala Raises More Than $290,000 for Baptist Health Care Foundation

PENSACOLA, Fla. (April 23, 2024) – Baptist Health Care Foundation’s 10th annual Casino Royale gala raised more than $290,000. Proceeds will benefit Baptist’s faith and community health programs and initiatives.

“We are committed to addressing the holistic needs of individuals and families in our community, particularly through partnerships with local faith-based organizations and community groups,” says KC Gartman, chief development officer, Baptist Health Care. “Through these partnerships, we have been able to reach thousands of individuals through health care navigation, health education and health screenings.”

The annual Casino Royale gala is held at the Hilton Pensacola Beach. This year’s event theme was based on the James Bond movie GoldenEye. More than 300 guests enjoyed an elegant gourmet dinner, six-piece showband, casino games and a silent auction.
