- IV. Presentation: “What Every HR Professional Should Know (and be Worried) About the NLRB and Unions”, Mike Perkins, Esq.. Mike is with Frontline HR and does a lot of work with workplace unionization. He is originally from Pensacola but is currently based in Birmingham. He will cover the growth of unions as well as the new rules by the VERY pro-union National Labor Relations Board and how they are impacting non-union employers in a significant way.

Next Meeting: July 24, 2024

Breakfast Host: Debbie Hill, Director of Hospital Management, Animal Hospital of Pea Ridge

Presentation: Carolyn Fries, Director of Workforce Development, CareerSource Escarosa/Greater Pensacola Chamber of Commerce

Many people think of CareerSource Escarosa as the unemployment office, but it is much more. The Business Services team conducts career fairs (many employers) and hiring events (single employer), provides grant funding to train new hires (OJT) and existing (EWT) employees, performs labor market research, candidate screenings, and job referrals (through EmployFlorida), administers the Florida Ready to Work program, and facilitates applications to the Federal Bonding (for justice system involved employees) and DoD SkillBridge (transitioning Military internships) programs.

Be sure to bring your mobile device, as she'll be using Slido to conduct on-the-spot polls to help guide the conversation. This is going to be a “FUN” presentation!
