

Darla Gonzalez is the Grassroots Director for The Arizona Free Enterprise Club and has worked in Grassroots for the last 25 years. This experience includes the political arena (both profit and non-profit) in Oregon and Arizona. Prior to working full-time in the Grassroots political arena, Darla worked as a Director of Administration for a large church in Phoenix. Darla is passionate about the U.S. Constitution and teaches people how they can participate in holding the government accountable, keeping Arizona Conservative and Free, and removing barriers to their individual prosperity.

Darla, her husband, and family moved to Chandler 18 years ago from Oregon. Her and her husband have been small business owners over the years, and since 2018, owned and operated Gonzalez Professional Services, LLC. Darla holds a BA in Business Administration, which she received from Ottawa University, the Chandler satellite campus. Darla is highly involved with community outreach with various ministries in the valley. She teaches U.S. Constitution and Genealogy, loves history, spending time with family and friends and authentic conversations.
