Representative:

Patrick F. Doyle, President

Tell us a little about your company's background.

South Land Title began in 1995 as a fee attorney office affiliated with American Title Company of Houston. Patrick F. Doyle was one of the early partners in this venture and later became the sole owner. The Texas City office was the first office for Mr. Doyle and he has grown this company, along with other acquisitions to 23 locations statewide including an underwriter.

How would you summarize what you do?

We are a full service title company specializing in residential and commercial real estate closing transactions. Our expert team of escrow officers and highly skilled support staff are committed to ensuring the success of every transaction, regardless of the location of the property.

How has your business evolved over time?

In 25 years, he has grown the South Land Title brand throughout the Gulf Coast area and acquired other companies – Brazos County Abstract Company, now South Land Title – Bryan; Security Abstract & Title Company of Abilene; Prominent Title in Austin; Guaranty Title Company of Grimes County in Navasota; Washington County Abstract Company in Brenham and most recently, the formation of Texas' newest underwriter – Texan Title Insurance Company

What are some of your proudest accomplishments?

What are you working on now?

Mr. Doyle is also the owner of the Doyle Law Firm based in Galveston. His firm concentrates their business in real estate & title matters, document preparation, banking and business transactions, family law, criminal defense, estate planning and probate, taxation and civil litigation.
