On the Horizon

PROJECTS ON THE HORIZON

TEXAS CITY

Texas City has a broad array of exciting projects in development. Examples would include Lago Mar Crystal Lagoon and Boardwalk retail and dining center. Industrial projects are in development for Next Decade LNG, Eastman, Oil Tanking and Pro Energy.

6TH STREET REVITALIZATION PROJECT

The City of Texas City has rezoned 6th Street as a Revitalization District in order to further the goal of developing this historic street into a regional entertainment destination. In just a few years we have seen a remarkable transformation through investments by the City, existing businesses and new businesses.

New streets and sidewalks, vintage-style light posts, esplanades, trees, unique signage and awnings all add to the pre-1950s charm envisioned for the area.

SHOAL POINT CARGO CONTAINER TERMINAL

Texas City is working with a private group to develop a Cargo Container Terminal within the Texas City Port at Shoal Point. This project is also known as the Texas City International Terminal.

TEXAS CITY INTERNATIONAL TERMINAL

Texas City International Terminal Shoal Point Container project is planned as a cargo container terminal with state-of-the-art facilities. The site has acquired its US Army of Corps of Engineers permits. The City of Texas City has an agreement with SSA Marine to develop and operate the terminal through a lease.

The Texas Department of Transportation is designing for construction a fly over that would allow direct connection from this facility to Interstate 45 allowing for quick connection to the Houston and central US markets. Rail is provided by two major railroads: Union Pacific and Santa Fe/Burlington Northern.

The Terminal will eventually have six berth areas roughly 1,000 feet each with state-of-the-art cranes, over 400 acres of container yard with potential for additional. The terminal will be developed in three phases depending on speed of occupancy and demand.

DOWNTOWN LA MARQUE REVITALIZATION PLAN

This report was commissioned by the La Marque Economic Development Corporation to explore the current conditions of the historic downtown located on Laurel Street, from Bayou Road to Yupon Drive, and also includes 1st Street, from Bayou Road to TX-3. La Marque is experiencing a Renaissance.

The city's leaders are committed to citywide revitalization projects, one of which is the historic Renaissance District.

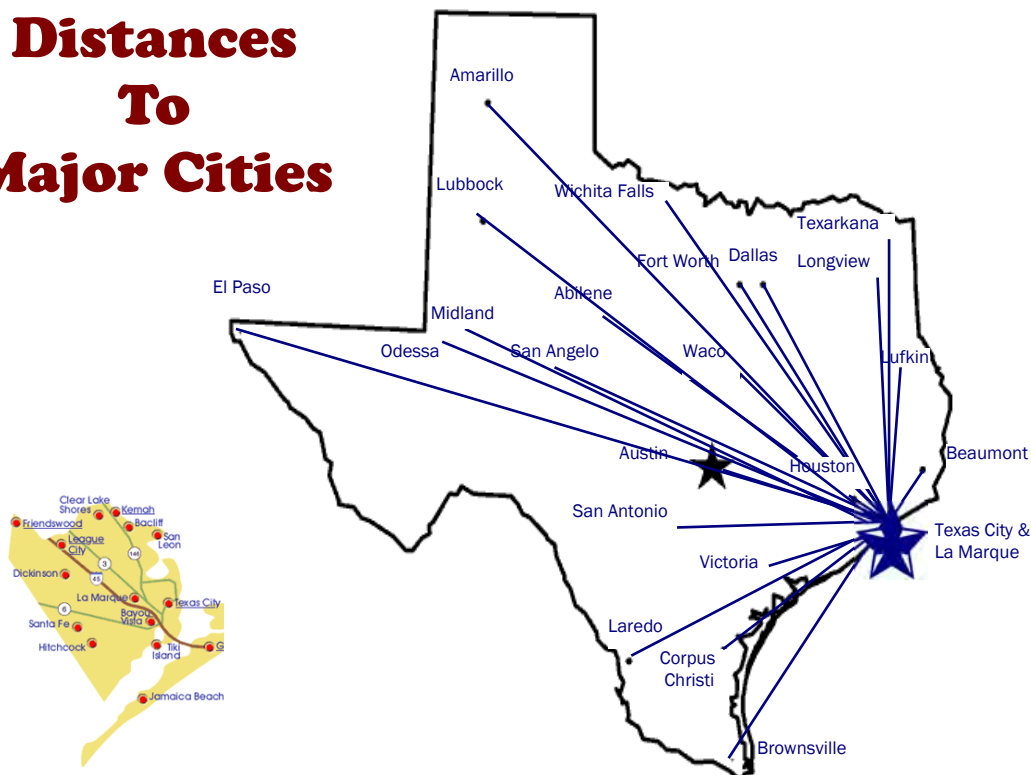

Drawing from feedback provided by focus groups and the community, this effort will be driven by the principles of placemaking, walkability, and accessibility for the community's aging population.

This project will also help create an attractive destination for La Marque residents and help refocus development toward the City's urban core.

CONCLUSION

The Gulf Coast Region and its 13 counties contain 25 percent of the state's population, growing 16 percent since 2010, and is the most diverse region in Texas. If this region were a state, it would be the 14th most populous. While the region's median age is on par with that of the state, it has the largest percentage of households with income over $125,000.

The region added more than 400,000 jobs from 2007 to 2017, and the average wage is significantly higher than the state average. The local economy is strong, with about 23 percent of the state's overall sales tax revenue coming from the Gulf Coast Region. Industry concentration in the region primarily revolves around the production of chemical and petroleum products, as well as certain transportation sectors, all contributing positively to this unique local economy.

Area Overview

Galveston County is located along the upper Texas Gulf Coast just southeast of Harris County and the Houston metropolitan area. The county faces the Gulf of Mexico to the southeast and is bordered by Brazoria County to the southwest, Harris County to the northwest, and Chambers County to the northeast. The 13-county Houston-Galveston Area Council region is shown at right providing a relational perspective of the surrounding counties. A map of Texas is included on page 4, providing distances and direction to major cities.

Cities located in Galveston County are shown on the jurisdictional boundary map on the facing page. The County covers 399 square miles, 500 square miles including the waters of Galveston Bay, East and West Bays, and the Gulf of Mexico. The City of Galveston, located on Galveston Island, is the County Seat. Houston's suburban development now approaches the northwest portion of Galveston County strengthening the economic ties between the two areas.

Most of Galveston County's land area is situated on the Mainland, west of Galveston Bay. The remainder includes Galveston Island, a barrier island just southeast of the Mainland, and Bolivar Peninsula, a barrier-like strip of land stretching down from the Mainland on the east side of Galveston Bay and nearly meeting Galveston Island at its northeast tip. Galveston Island and Bolivar Peninsula together enclose Galveston Bay from the Gulf of Mexico. The gap between the two, known as Bolivar Roads, forms a natural entrance to Galveston Bay and to the Houston, Galveston, and Texas City ship channels and ports.

County Infrastructure

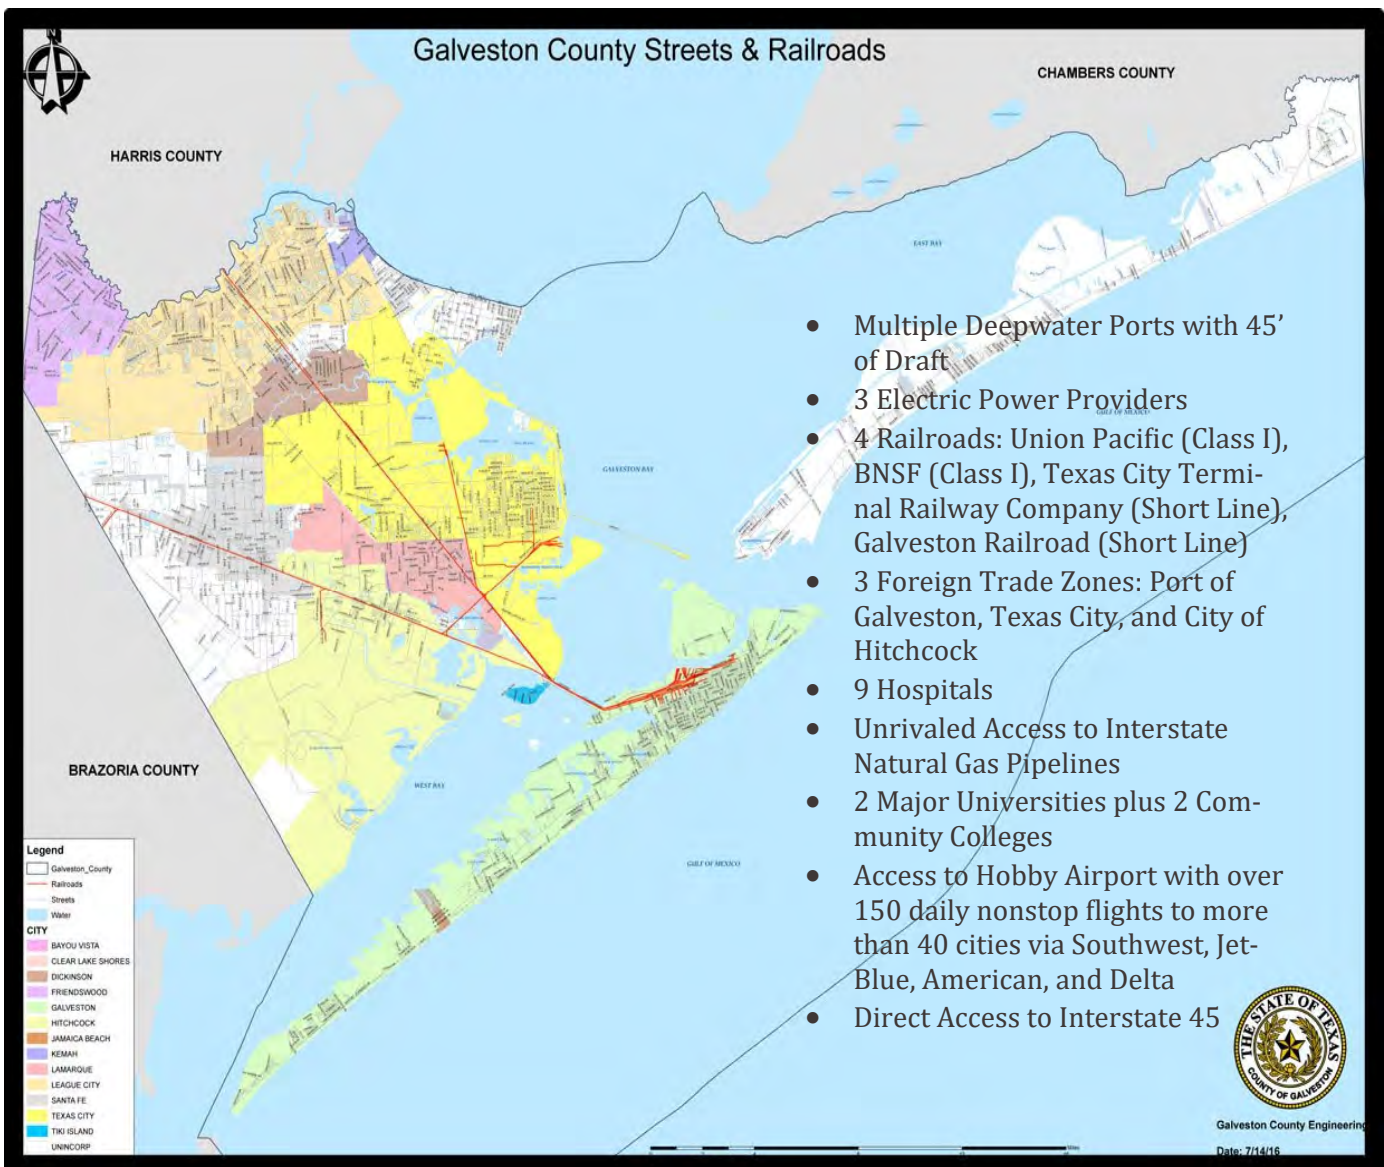

Galveston County has a world-class transportation infrastructure that incorporates an interstate, multiple state highways, two deep-water ports, four railroads, and a local airport. (The county is also served by Hobby Airport, and Ellington Spaceport immediately to our north.)

Roads, railroads, airports, and deep-water ports are essential building blocks of the Galveston County economy. Infrastructure enables trade, powers businesses, connects workers to their jobs, creates opportunities, and protects the nation from an increasingly unpredictable natural environment. From private investment in telecommunication systems, broadband networks, freight railroads, energy projects, and pipelines, to public spending on transportation, water, buildings and parks, our infrastructure is the backbone of a healthy economy. Airports / Spaceports, Deep-water Ports, Foreign Trade Zones, Freight Railroads, Pipelines, Roads & Highways and Road Improvements.

Electricity, natural gas, water, and drainage are all commodities and services that businesses need to function. Thankfully they are in abundant supply in Galveston County.

TANGER OUTLET

The first ever joint venture between the country's leaders in outlet development, Tanger Factory Outlets Center, Inc. and Simon Premium Outlets, have created the new Gateway to the Gulf Coast. Located on 55 acres along the heavily tourist driven Interstate 45 South, the new 350,000 sq. ft. branded Tanger Outlets is the premium shopping destination of the region. Taking its architectural aesthetics from both historic Texas City and the seaside community of Galveston, the new center is divided into four distinct districts where the shopper will meander through meticulously landscaped promenades, under trellis and bris soleil which converge in an open air center court aptly named Gulf Coast Promenade. This scenic focal point of the center is home to a stylish yet contemporary food court, which will provide climate-controlled indoor seating as well as outside dining under umbrellas along the water's edge. Complimentary Wi-Fi is offered throughout the center. There are 90 leading brand name and designer outlet stores in Phase I. The Texas City-La Marque area is home for a wide array of retail, industry and service-oriented businesses. Everything from large department stores to specialty boutiques can be found. Shopping is plentiful!

Texas City's Buc-ee's is a "mega-store" and that's not using that term lightly. It's a sporting goods store, a Texas boutique, toy store, surf shop, deli, and miniature grocery store rolled into one building. Oh, and don't forget the Beaver Nuggets, those addictive sweet snacks.

Shopping Texas City & Historic 6th Street Sixth Street is lined with many historical commercial buildings dating from the early 1900's. The storied old buildings now house a host of shops, jewelry store, sports bar, antique shops, casual cafe, salon, and much more. Other shops and restaurants are lined up down Palmer Highway (the main thoroughfare in Texas City).

Shopping La Marque from Wal-Mart and Sam's Club to Mom & Pop Shops.... You'll be pleasantly surprised at what great hidden treasures are right here in our backyard!

Stay & Play

*From culture to cuisine, lifestyle and traditions, to entertainment and shopping...
Texas City and La Marque offer residents and visitors a lot of options to fit their needs.*
