

Traditional Student 2024 Scholarship Application

The Women's Division is offering $1,000 scholarships for traditional students for the 2024-2025 school year. A traditional student includes someone who is currently a high school senior planning to enter college or a vocational/technical school in the 2024 Summer or Fall semester or someone who entered college/technical school directly from high school and is currently enrolled in a college or university undergraduate program or technical certificate program as a freshman, sophomore, junior or senior. The scholarship can be used for any school-related expense including tuition, books, room & board, fees, or dues.

Eligibility

In addition to the description above, applicants will be females seeking 2-year or 4-year undergraduate degrees or technical certificates. They must be current Leavenworth County residents who graduated from Leavenworth, Lansing, or Pleasant Ridge High Schools. Applicants must fill out the attached application, write a one-page essay, submit official academic transcripts, and attach one reference letter. Failure to correctly comply with application guidelines will result in disqualification of your application. Applicants may also be required to attend an interview with the Women's Division Scholarship.
