Harriet Tubman and the Underground Railroad is a play that Virginia rep on Tour (formerly Theatre IV) has been touring since 1990. While doing the extensive research into the life of Harriet Tubman the author included many of the scenes in the life of Harriet Tubman, in fact the whole premise of the play are the accounts as set forth in the Sara Bradford's book Scenes in the Life of Harriet Tubman Published by W. J. Moses in 1896 from interviews with Harriet Tubman herself.

Mother Nature may have kept Leadership Sioux Center from their annual trip to Des Moines, but it sure didn't keep us from learning from the best about state government plus an exciting afternoon at the Escape Room. It was a great day of learning, many laughs and team building! Thank you Senator Randy Feenstra, Scotty Wynja and former Senator Dave Mulder and his lovely wife, Dot for sharing with us!

The public is invited to join the library on Wednesday, March 13 at 6:30pm for a presentation on Straw Bale Gardening. The program will begin at 6:30pm and will be led by Mark Paluch.

19

The library will be holding a Financial Series on Banking Basics beginning March 19 and continuing for four continuous Tuesday evenings from 7-8:30pm. We are teaming up with People's Bank and will focus on banking, credits, budgets, and loans. Sign up online through our website. Registration is very helpful!

PLEASE TAKE OUR SURVEY!

The Library is conducting a survey to better our service to the community.

We would greatly appreciate having as many people from the community take the survey as possible. You don't even have to be a regular library attendee! We just want your opinion!

Go to the library's webpage at www.siouxcenterlibrary.org for a link to the survey. Hard copies are available in the city office and at the library in both English and Spanish.

Survey deadline is March 15.

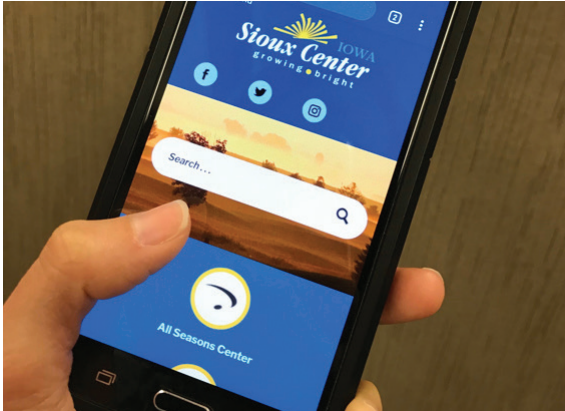

SHARE WITH US

We try hard to stay on top of the news by scouring the local papers and websites for information about our members to include in our newsletter. But we would hate to miss anything so would appreciate your help. If you have news, congrats, awards, sympathies, events or any information about your business or your employees that you would like included in the next Chamber newsletter, please email it to me by the 22nd of the month. We'd love to help share your news!

CITY WEBSITE REDESIGNED FOR BETTER USER EXPERIENCE

The redesigned City of Sioux Center website offers more than a fresh look.

Using analytics and public feedback, the website is updated to be more inviting, easy-to-use, and accessible for all users.

The City website receives more than 100,000 visits per year. It is a connection point for local residents and a hub for information for people from across the nation looking to know more about Sioux Center. About 70 percent of visitors are from outside of Sioux Center, and 47 percent are from outside the state of Iowa.

The redesign makes it easier for locals to find information they need and it presents outside visitors a comprehensive look at Sioux Center.

More than half of people accessing the website by phone or mobile devices, so the redesign features a mobile-friendly structure.

The All Seasons Center pages are high-traffic areas for the City website, and the redesign puts these pages at users' fingertips.

A new section on the website will feature residential, employment, and business opportunities available in our growing community.

The redesigned website is also more accessible than ever to all users including those using screen readers or other assistive technology.

Feedback from the 2018 Community Survey and other comments helped shape the redesign, and city staff is still open to ideas to make this website better.

Email ideas to info@siouxcenter.org.

PRODIGAL LOVE OF GOD CONFERENCE

On April 4-6, 2019, Dordt and the Andreas Center for Reformed Scholarship and Service, in partnership with the Lilly Fellows Program, will host a conference titled “The Prodigal Love of God: Reencountering Dort at 400 and Beyond.” Confirmed speakers include Marilynne Robinson, Richard Mouw, James K.A. Smith, Timothy George, Paul Lim, Suzanne McDonald, Jemar Tisby, and Tish Harrison Warren.

This year and next marks the 400th anniversary of the Synod of Dort, the namesake of Dordt. Many churches and communities have celebrated the quincentenary of the Reformation, but the Synod of Dort does not loom so large in the popular imagination. For some, even members of the Protestant tradition, Dort seems to leave us with a complicated historical legacy of arid doctrinalism.

However, the story of the Synod of Dort—its legacy and its place in the Christian tradition—is much broader and more generous than this. Dort should be remembered for its rigorous doctrinal disputes, but within those debates there are also profound theological truths that continue to inspire many ecumenical conversations across Christian traditions. In the Canons of Dort, we encounter the prodigal love of God, who offers the blessing of the gospel “to all persons promiscuously and without distinction.” This theological message is something that has shaped and reformed Protestant communities for four hundred years. Through invited plenaries and panel discussions, our conference will feature conversations about the historical legacy and the future of Protestantism as well as the opportunities facing the global church in the decades ahead.

Questions? Please contact the Andreas Center at plg2019@dordt.edu.

More info at www.dordt.edu/plg & conference tickets ($50 General Admission) are available at <https://prodigalloveofgodregistration.eventbrite.com>
