PREMIER COMMUNICATIONS TO CARRY IOWA BOYS STATE TOURNAMENT GAMES

Looking Ahead

Premier Communications is pleased to announce that an agreement with Iowa High School Sports Network (IHSSN) has been reached to broadcast Iowa high school boys state tournament games.

This fall, Ken Krogman, President of the Iowa High School Sports Network (IHSSN) announced a new distribution method of viewership coverage for the Iowa Boys State tournament events, granting Premier Communications the opportunity to rebroadcast the games. This agreement allows the people of Northwest Iowa to view the tournament games on Premier's Cable TV system and also select games on broadcast television.

"IHSSN is pleased to partner with Premier Communications in bringing the state tournament games to Northwest Iowa," stated Krogman. "Distribution partners such as Premier, give viewers on the western side of the state the ability to watch not only our local teams play but also those throughout Iowa in the state tournaments."

Premier will be broadcasting 12 semi-final football games, 16 quarter-final and 8 semi-final basketball games along with semi-final wrestling games for the 2019-2020 school year. KPTH, the Fox affiliate in Sioux City, will be airing the finals.

"We are proud to carry the boy's tournament games" affirmed Doug Boone, CEO of Premier Communications. "Local high school sports are very important to Premier Communications and our customers. Historically, this part of the state sends a lot of teams to the tournaments; we are fortunate to have many talented players and teams in Northwest Iowa, and we are delighted to have an agreement in place that provides our viewers the opportunity to view their favorite teams and players. This is truly a win-win for Iowa high school athletics."

Premier Communications will be showing the boys tournament games on channel 50 in standard definition and on channel 450 in high definition.

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY Extension and Outreach

SMART CHOICE HEALTH INSURANCE LEARNING SESSION NOV. 14 IN ORANGE CITY

ISU Extension and Outreach hosts free course on shopping for health insurance

ORANGE CITY, Iowa – With only a short time remaining to secure health insurance for the upcoming year, Iowa State University (ISU) Extension and Outreach is offering a free workshop to help individuals understand how to make smart choices when purchasing health care coverage. The workshop will be held from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. on Nov. 14 at the ISU Extension and Outreach Sioux County office in Orange City.

Smart Choice Health Insurance is a health insurance literacy curriculum that provides research-based education to help consumers understand health insurance concepts and terms, evaluate their own health insurance needs, examine insurance plans and select a plan that fits their needs and budget.

“As individuals and families consider essential benefits, additional coverage and pre-existing conditions, they may feel overwhelmed by the choices,” said Jan Monahan, Human Sciences Specialist in Family Finance with ISU Extension and Outreach. “This is true at any stage of life, whether the individual is turning 26 and leaving their family’s health insurance plan or if he or she has had their own health insurance policy for years.”

Through the Smart Choice Health Insurance workshop, attendees will:

- Understand the importance of networks and finding out which health providers participate in various plans;
- Find out whether financial assistance is available to reduce the cost of health insurance;
- Use a guide to identify their own health insurance needs and priorities;
- Be able to compare different plans available through the Health Insurance Marketplace; and
- Prepare to purchase health insurance coverage.

“This workshop will help people choose the coverage that best fits their or their family’s budget and health care needs, and then use that plan efficiently once enrolled,” Monahan said.

For more information about the Smart Choice Health Insurance workshop, contact the ISU Extension and Outreach Sioux County office at 712-737-4230 or xsiooux@iastate.edu. The program is free and open to the public, with no pre-registration needed.

The Smart Choice Health Insurance Program is funded through 1311 grant funds from a U.S. Department of Health and Human Services grant.
