2024 Spirit of Community: A night of awards, entertainment

The community is invited to attend "Spirit of Community-An Evening Celebrating Sioux Center" beginning at 5:30 pm on Friday, April 12, 2024, at the Terrace View Event Center. The evening will feature community award winners and entertainment by Jared Sherlock. Jared is an award-winning illusionist and comic magician that has been featured at events nationwide. Jared began his love of the art of magic at the age of eight years old and has continued to entertain audiences for nearly 30 years!

"This event is a great opportunity for us to celebrate and recognize those who have gone above and beyond in our community and to join together for an evening of food, fun and fellowship," states Barb Den Herder, CEO of the Sioux Center Chamber.

A highlight of the evening is honoring this year's community and chamber award recipients and recognizing new businesses that opened or had new ownership in Sioux Center this past year.

Community Service Awards: Individual – David Krahling
Business – Snap Fitness & ProActive Physical Therapy
Organization – Rising Arrows

Chamber's Spirit of Community Awards: Siouxperman Triathlon Committee
