NOTE FROM THE CEO

Letter from the CEO - Don Long

With the passing of Hurricane Ian I am thankful for the community support we were able to help direct to those in need including our chamber friends in Sanibel and Captiva. On Thanksgiving we will wish the best for all our friends who were impacted by Ian and give thanks for the love and expressed concerns of those who care about us. HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

COMMITTEE NEWS

Committee News

Marketing Committee

Thank you to our wonderful Marketing Committee for creating graphics, promo videos & helping our sponsors organize social media posts for the Chamber Swing Golf Tournament happening on November 4. We appreciate your full commitment and support.

Health Committee

The new and improved Health Committee is excited to announce that our first date for the first health care collaborate has been set for 1/27.

This will be a luncheon panel discussing Preventative Health in the New Year.

We hope to have speaker topics for January's event and location set by next month's meeting on November 9th.

Those who have ideas for topics that are important to the Lake Nona community that we can plug into future events. Please reach out and share them with us.

All ideas are welcomed!
