

Luis E. Franco

Consul of Mexico in Indianapolis

Luis E. Franco has had a long and successful career having served as the Deputy Chief of Protocol for almost ten years and as such being in charge of organizing presidential trips overseas for two presidents of Mexico. He has also coordinated visits to Mexico on behalf of foreign dignitaries including, presidents, kings and prime ministers. For this work he was granted several foreign civil decorations.

He has been posted in the Embassies (India, New Zealand and Sweden) and three consulates in the USA (San Antonio, TX, Salt Lake City, Utah, and Indianapolis, IN). He has served as a career diplomat for the Mexican Foreign Service since 1982.

Consul Franco has a BA in International Relations from the Mexican Autonomous National University (UNAM) and a post graduate degree in Diplomacy and International Relations between Europe and Latin America from the University of Florence, Italy.

He is married and has two daughters.