

Due to COVID-19, please understand our new store procedures to keep you and our employees safe.

Face masks or other face coverings are required.

No more than two family members per household should be in the store at one time.

Keep a minimum distance of six feet between you and other people, including employees.

If you are feeling unwell, please do not enter.

We appreciate your cooperation.