

The Greater New Hyde Park Chamber of Commerce
2022 Business Person of the Year

Edward Stone
Ed Stone Photography
Chamber Board of Director

Edward Stone serves as one of the Board of Directors and on the Website Committee of the Greater New Hyde Park Chamber of Commerce and as its Official Photographer. His concentration is commercial Photography specializing in music festivals, documentary filming, drone photography and has a HAM radio license for communications.

Ed Stone Photography is part of Stone3MultiMedia and has done work for the U.S. Marines at Parris Island and the U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary during Fleet Week and other training operations.

Edward Stone is also a Lieutenant in the Nassau County Auxiliary Police and is the Commanding Officer for Unit 201, Westbury and for Unit 216, New Cassel, New York with more than 45 years of service in the Nassau County Police Department.

Also, he is part of Homeland Security and the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary where he has served as Flotilla Commander in City Island, Bronx, NY, has been Boat Crew certified for Coast Guard Search and Rescue, for Radio Communications and as a Fingerprint Technician.

Lastly, he is a retired Educator with forty years as a New York City high school educator in music, a band director and performance.