Are you using your member portal?

Have you registered and created a login on the Chamber website? This members-only area is where you can pay your Chamber invoices, post events, jobs, news releases and access upcoming event flyers, benefit information and documents for committees you serve on. When you submit information and they are approved, not only do they post on the Chamber website, they also post to the Chamber's social media pages. This is also the area where you can update your business address, phone, company representatives and other information that you wish to have appear on your business listing of the Chamber website and in the printed directory that is published each year.

Enhance Your Listing

Members do have the opportunity to enhance their Basic Membership Listing, which is provided free of charge to all members, by upgrading to the Enhanced Membership Listing. Enhanced Membership Listings feature the ability to add photos and logos, videos, and expand business descriptions to include up to 1600 characters. The fee to upgrade to the Enhanced Listing is $100 annually. Contact the Chamber to enhance your listing and take advantage of the added exposure or click here.
