June 2021

Looking Ahead to Summer and In-Person Events

The weather is looking up, and with pandemic restrictions easing, Chamber staff members are excited and looking forward to seeing members again in person. We will soon be preparing our lobby for reopening. Masks will still be required to enter the building for the time being, but once our lobby is open, Chamber members and the public are welcome to come in and browse our display racks of informational publications, many of which are newly revamped.

Chamber members—now is a great time to drop your business cards and brochures off to the office. Until we officially reopen later this month, you can call ahead so we know to expect you, or you can drop them in our mail slot. The Information Center in our lobby receives regular walk-in traffic and serves as a great resource for our members to obtain business referrals by keeping their cards and brochures stocked up.

The Chamber Raffle Bash, on August 13, is scheduled to be our first in-person event this year, with a fun and spooky “Change Your Luck on Friday the 13th” theme. Tickets have been selling fast. There are still some sponsorship opportunities available for this event, and those are going quickly as well. We see this as an encouraging sign that people are ready to get out and socialize.

The Board of Directors and staff can’t express enough how grateful we are to our member businesses and organizations for supporting the Chamber, which allows us, in turn, to promote them in an effort to grow and maintain a favorable economic climate in the Greater Rochester community.
