Frankfort Fall Festival

Thank you for joining us for our 53rd Annual Frankfort Fall Festival. We are so glad to be able to bring back this beloved Frankfort tradition after having to cancel in 2020 due to COVID-19 restrictions.

Frankfort Fall Festival is a nationally recognized Arts & Crafts Fair produced by the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce. It is historically ranked in the Top 10 Contemporary Arts & Crafts Fairs in the country, most recently No. 5 in 2019.

This year, Frankfort Fall Festival has the distinct honor of being named No. 5 among Sunshine Artist Magazine's Top 200 Best for the decade of 2010-2020! Thank you to our wonderful Artisans who helped us earn this award!

With almost 300 Artisan booths, a food court, two entertainment areas (The Garden and Breidert Green), a carnival, a parade, and downtown restaurants and businesses, the festival is sure to have something for everyone. The Frankfort Chamber of Commerce, the Village of Frankfort and several hundred volunteers from the Lincoln-Way area and community organizations make it all happen.

We also invite you to stop by the Chamber member booth in front of the Chamber of Commerce, 123 Kansas Street, at the foot of the old Frankfort water tower, to meet some of our other member businesses who have locations outside of the Fest footprint.

We'd like to thank this year's sponsors.

Garden Sponsors: Gerald Honda and Toyota of Matteson, and RJ Graham Plumbing

Fan Sponsors: Town Center Bank and the Law Office of Joseph M. Kosteck

Coffee Sponsors (for Artisans and Volunteers): The Learning Experience, Book Racing & Yarns To Dye For Water Sponsors (for Artisans and Volunteers): Burke Orthodontics and Trail's Edge Brewing Co.

As you flip through the pages of this booklet, you will find a map of the Fest grounds, a list of the Artisans and their booth locations, the entertainment lineup, carnival schedule, concessions, and other notes to answer questions you may have. If we've left anything unanswered, you can stop by the Information Booth in the middle of the Fest at White and Oak Streets and the volunteers will be happy to help.

Have a great time!
