Welcome

Your Frankfort Chamber of Commerce is pleased to present the 2021 edition of the Frankfort Resource Guide. This beautiful presentation of our village is made possible by the support of our members and those who have opted to advertise in this publication. Please patronize these fine businesses and help grow our local economy.

The mission of the Frankfort Chamber of Commerce is "working together to cultivate and connect our business community." We strive to connect our members to each other, to area residents and to education and resources to help them grow and prosper.

While we provide services and opportunities and create events that directly benefit Chamber members, we also produce, sponsor and co-sponsor events that benefit the entire community. A strong vibrant community is good for business and strong businesses are good for the community!

The COVID-19 pandemic and its resulting restrictions have proven to be a challenge for everyone. Throughout the last year, the Chamber has faced its own budget cuts and employee layoffs, but we continue to provide our members with the most current information and resources, and offer virtual and in-person meetings and events when safely possible to help us stay connected.

Over the last year, we have been evaluating our programs and offerings, making changes and developing new ways to better serve our members and the community going forward.

We are currently planning several of our annual events including our Community Golf Outing, our annual Community Showcase (an outdoor, modified version), and our premier event, Frankfort Fall Festival, which has been held over Labor Day Weekend (except in 2020) for the last 50+ years.

We are also working to create a new Professional Development Series to bring our members high-quality speakers to teach new skills and help you and your employees improve upon current skills to better run your business. Another area we are focusing on is new avenues to help our members connect, get referrals and market their businesses.

For our members, consider the Chamber your business partner. We are here to help, but the more you get involved, the more you will reap the benefits. Jump in! Attend events, host an event, join a committee, offer your expertise to help other members. If you want to get involved, we will find the right fit for you!

Not a Chamber member yet? We invite you to join us for one of our monthly Meet, Greet & Network (MGN) events to check us out. MGN takes place on the third Tuesday morning of the month. We are currently offering both in-person and virtual options for participating, but we hope to get back to full in-person soon!

Whether you are a Chamber member or not, we ask that you remember to shop Chamber first when you look for services, retail or restaurants. Supporting our local businesses helps keep Frankfort a wonderful, vibrant place to shop, dine, play and live!

The Member Directory in the back of this book, can help you find local businesses to address all your needs.

A digital member directory as well as information on membership and events and more can be found at www.frankfortchamber.com. And don't forget to "like" our Facebook page, facebook.com/frankfortchamberofcommerce for the latest news and events.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call the Chamber at 815-469-3356 or email kris@frankfortchamber.com

Best wishes,

Message from the Mayor

It has been an honor to serve Frankfort residents as Mayor for the last 16 years. As I prepare to retire, I want to welcome you to Frankfort where over 20,000 residents take pride in our high-quality homes, neighborhoods, shopping centers, parks, schools and government services.

Independent retailers and restaurateurs find our bustling historic downtown an ideal location. Chain retailers and restaurateurs appreciate the modern shopping centers on Routes 30 and 45 where traffic counts are exceptionally high.

Business center owners and industrial property owners benefit from Will County's substantially lower industrial property tax rate.

Residents appreciate upscale housing at reasonable prices, award-winning school districts and extensive youth and family programs.

People who live, shop or work in Frankfort find their lives enriched. Call us or visit us to learn more about living here, shopping here or locating a business here. Also call us if you want to learn more about one of our many year-round free events. Visit www.frankfortil.org or call (815) 469-2177.

Sip, Dine & SAVOR

By Pat Szpekowski

The Village of Frankfort is prized by its local residents for its historic downtown, great schools, a warm and thriving business and community atmosphere, and open space pathways and trails. It has been ranked 36th in the nation's fastest growing suburbs by Forbes Magazine.

There's one more reason to wear a broad smile about Frankfort: It's a prime location for a wide variety of food, beverage, and dining options to satisfy hungry appetites close to home.

WHERE TO DINE
Check out a listing of local restaurants and bars on page 14.

The Frankfort Chamber of Commerce proudly boasts a large number of members in this tasty category. They are a diverse and unique collection offering a vast array of choices for guests to sip, dine, and savor.

"Great things are happening here in Frankfort," said Kris Pasquini, Frankfort Chamber executive director. "We are rich in long-time, locally-owned restaurants which have built a strong following over the years, to new establishments that are eager to build relationships with our residents and businesses, too."

Dining options in Frankfort range from sit-down restaurants and bar favorites to fast food/carry-out eateries and specialized catering experts.

Whatever you are hungry for, there's a place for you. Whether it's breakfast, lunch, dinner or an early or late-night snack, Frankfort has it all. There are good old American seafood, chicken, steak, and burger restaurants plus heritage-rich German, Italian, and Hispanic classics.

For any time, there are places to wake up and sip a hot cup of coffee; enjoy a frozen yogurt or ice cream treat all year long; order a pizza for casual fun; or wind down with a glass of wine or cold brew. They all offer a variety of tastes for any palate cravings.

If you're celebrating a special occasion, eating on the run, or just plain don't want to cook, keep these local eating treasures in mind. Grab a bite to go while enjoying a community event at Breidert Green or traversing the Old Plank Road Trail.

Treat yourself or family and friends and dine together to make lasting memories and give back by supporting local Frankfort food and dining traditions.

Health & Wellness

By Chris Walker

Access to quality health care and wellness options are important factors when looking for a place to live. Thankfully, Frankfort is home to many options for both, and many others are nearby.

We have first-rate hospitals and medical centers nearby including Silver Cross Hospital in New Lenox, Riverside Health Care and Hedges Clinic in Frankfort, and Franciscan Health Olympia Fields.

Many primary care physicians, pediatricians, family practices, chiropractic and wellness centers are proud to call Frankfort their home. Some of these wellness centers specialize in offering quality and holistic aesthetic treatments, like Botox and Coolsculpting®. Others are massage specialists, offering Swedish, headache & sinus relief technique, acupressure, joint manipulation and much more.

Therapy options exist in Frankfort with highly trained, experienced professionals with many years of counseling experience providing clients with the tools to meet challenges in life. Treatment for anxiety, depression, PTSD, eating disorders and various other mental health disorders is available in town, along with support groups.

You can also find physical therapists, podiatrists, pain management professionals, speech and language therapists, vein treatment clinics, dermatologists and more.

Dental offices, optometrists and eye care centers can be found throughout the village as well.

MYCHART

Parks & Recreation By Kevin Druley

A smiling family with their dog enjoying the annual Super Dog Egg Hunt appears on the cover of the Frankfort Park District's Spring 2021 program guide, flanked by a headline for all seasons: "Come join the fun!"

While the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic keeps creating the need for contingencies, there are recreational opportunities aplenty via the park district and the open spaces of community parks.

"As we continue to ride out the pandemic, the Park District continues to work to provide facilities and services that are permitted during the State of Illinois reopening plan," Frankfort Park District Executive Director Gina Hassett writes in the program guide. "During these unprecedented times (yes I said it), residents have expressed the importance of having access to outdoor space, fitness and other programming including special events. As the pandemic continues, the Park District staff are working to offer virtual programs, smaller classes and new offerings. Safety of our participants and park users remains a priority!"

Registration for programs is permissible online at www.frankfortparks.org; in person at the Founders Community Center, 140 Oak St., Frankfort; by fax at (815) 469-9275; or by U.S. mail. Online registration requires a customer ID. Should a request for this ID be made after hours or over the weekend, requests will be processed on the next business day.

And guess what? People aren't the only ones who can take advantage of activities. Located at the northwest corner of Commissioners Park, at the intersection of 80th Avenue and Sauk Trail, the Frankfort Bark Park offers three acres of room for residents' furry friends to roam.

Owners must register their dogs with the Frankfort Park District to receive an access card. Annual fees cost $60 for resident families and $65 for non-resident families, with renewing members paying $50 or $55, respectively. Memberships are good through June 30.

Commissioners Park also is home to a trio of new pickleball courts, made for the fast paced and fast-growing sport that combines tennis, badminton and ping pong. The park district also power washed the adjacent tennis courts to provide lines for pickleball play.

The park district offers a number of various leagues, including basketball, soccer, 12" softball and indoor flag football. For more information, visit the park district website or call (815) 469-9400. Also check back for additional info on hours and rates for the Frankfort Splash Park, a longtime favorite of residents looking for a convenient and inexpensive way to beat the heat.

If you're looking for other ways to clear your mind during these turbulent times, the park district also offers fishing at Jackson Creek, Kohlhagen, Lakeview Estates North, Lakeview Estates South and Roy and Dorothy Janssen parks. A valid Illinois sport fishing license is required, while catch and release is encouraged.

Education in Frankfort

By Diane Krieger Spivak

The village of Frankfort is home to a number of highly-ranked schools, including public, private and special needs. Local educational institutions meet the needs of early childhood development through college-level instruction.

At Lincoln-Way Community High School District 210's three exemplary high schools students choose from a diverse curriculum including 1,075 traditional classes, 88 advanced placement courses, and others not available at other high schools. Students also have the opportunity to participate in 213 clubs and activities, and 108 athletic teams.

Frankfort School District 157-C's three schools educate students in grades pre-K through eight. Long recognized as one of the outstanding districts in Illinois, Frankfort 157-C has received distinction as a "Blue Ribbon School" and has earned an "Exemplary" rating from the Illinois State Board of Education. In addition, Hickory Creek Middle School was selected as a "Demonstration School" by the Association of Middle Schools and an Illinois Horizon School "School to Watch."

Summit Hill School District 161 focuses on seamless technology integration in a 1:1 student learning environment. Professional development supports classroom teachers in the creation of powerful synchronous learning environments using research-based strategies that effectively use technology in lesson planning. These advancements continue to support District 161's vision to develop 21st century technology competencies in students by building and supporting a learning environment that is reliable, effective, and evolutionary.

Joliet Junior College is the nation's first public community college, with six campuses and education centers that serve approximately 27,000 students annually. JJC's nine academic pathways offer customized, affordable certificate and associate degree options for immediate career placement or seamless transfer capabilities. It features an award-winning culinary arts program, and is a top destination for those seeking careers in nursing, health and public services.

Governors State University, located on a 750-acre wooded campus, offers 22 bachelor's, 27 graduate, and 4 doctoral degree programs, as well as 22 certificate programs in four colleges: Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, and Health and Human Services. GSU was awarded the 2015 American Council on Education/Fidelity Investments Award for Institutional Transformation, and in 2011 broke ground on a $22.6 million renovation of its science facilities.

Frankfort Public Library

By Melissa Riske

FRANKFORT PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTRICT
21119 S. Pfeiffer Rd.
Frankfort, IL 60423
(815) 469-2423
www.frankfortlibrary.org

Whether visiting for research or leisure, learning a new craft or improving computer skills, the Frankfort Public Library is the place to find what you seek. And sometimes, you don't even need to leave the comfort of your own couch.

The library is a hub of the community, serving the needs and interests of all ages from tiny tots in weekly story times to programming and resources for students and adults on a quest for information.

Cultivating collections that meet the variety of interests and the ever-growing desire for technology isn't an easy task. Several years ago, members of the library board along with staff created a strategic plan that serves as a guiding document to shape the library, explains library board president Jan Look.

"Our strategic plan helps us to figure out what we need and want to provide based on the resources we have," Look said.

Resources come in several forms, from traditional books to subscriptions to digital platforms as well as classes offered in-person and online. Programming is designed to meet the interest and needs of the community, from skills to help boost a resume to craft and leisure activities. Library card holders can use a computer to draft a resume or one of the library's sewing machines to make something.

"I think of a library as an extension of school where you can learn how to do something in one evening," Look said.

There is no shortage of opportunities to utilize the library, from resources to research, book discussions to entertainment. Looking for something new to read? Let the library staff hand-select books based on your interest with a Book Bundle.

And be sure to check out the array of library materials accessible to you without leaving home, including audio and e-books, streaming media that includes access to digital magazines and newspapers. Take online courses in varied subjects including accounting, music and prep classes for college entrance exams.

"All it takes is a library card," Look said, and she added, "You can even get a library card online."

Check out the monthly Take-Make-Donate Community Projects where patrons can pick up materials, create a craft, which can be as simple as a coloring page, and return it to the library where staff distributes it during outreach programming at local senior residential facilities.

"The library is one of our greatest resources," Look said.

One of the NATION'S BEST. CLOSE to Home.

Silver Cross Hospital

Being named one of the nation's 100 TOP HOSPITALS is something few hospitals ever achieve. So you can imagine how proud we are to earn this distinction for the 8th time!

100 Top Hospitals like Silver Cross have better survival rates, fewer complications, shorter hospital stays and higher ratings from patients.

Added to our Straight A's for Patient Safety from the Leapfrog Group, our 100 Top recognition demonstrates that safety, quality and patient experience are at the heart of everything we do.

So when you're looking for one of the country's best hospitals, look no further than Silver Cross — proud to be your 100 Top Hospital.

The way you should be treated.
