The Pennsylvania Association of Chamber Professionals (PACP) recognizes the outstanding work of the “Eastern Montgomery County CHAMBER OF COMMERCE” for their excellent service to the business community during the current novel Coronavirus pandemic.

From the moment local businesses began to be impacted by COVID-19, Chambers across the Commonwealth responded proactively on behalf of their members and their communities. All PACP Chambers share the common thread of providing resources and assistance to their respective businesses – emphasizing “3” essential roles.

In particular, PACP salutes the “EASTERN MONTGOMERY COUNTY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE” for these efforts.

- “CATALYST for Business Growth”
 - EMCCC provided valuable resources & links to the business community by sending over 40 emails specifically identifying and explaining funding opportunities for small business from the national, state, and local levels.
 - EMCCC hosted over 20 virtual networking, educational, and interactive webinars since the beginning of the pandemic offering the community a way to connect, support one another, and continue to do business.
 - Some of the Featured meetings and webinars included: Tips for Business Development While in Isolation, How Your Company Can Become a Media Expert in the Age of COVID-19, Print Marketing in the Digital Age, The CARES Act, How Do I Apply for Funding & Understanding the Process; The CARES Act: The Process, The Approval and the Closing; ZOOM 101; Focusing on Strategy During a Crisis for Non-Profits; Tips on Working Remotely, & “Rebooting the Workplace: Preparing for the New Normal” to mention a few.

“As the professional association of local Chambers of Commerce executives and staff, the PACP mission is to enhance the quality and relevance of Chamber management in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,” said Board Chair Kellie Goodman Shaffer. “Our organization has been proud to work and serve in partnership with local Chambers during this extraordinary crisis, and equally honored to have this opportunity to recognize our members for their exceptional service to their communities.”
