"Cristal and Ben at Red Mountain Benefits Group have been spectacular assets to our company and have provided top-quality service since moving our benefits package in 2019. They are very informative and quick to respond to any questions or concerns that arise. Before their assistance, helping our employees make benefits decisions was a daunting task that left us feeling like we could not adequately inform them as to what the best options were. Cristal and Ben have completely taken the reins and our employees are being taken care of better than ever."
