Collin County Realtors Host Holiday Drop & Dash Community Donation Event Benefitting the Children's Advocacy Center of Collin County

PLANO, Texas — The Collin County Association of Realtors (CCAR) invites the North Texas community to drive-up and drop-off donations as part of its Holiday Drop & Dash event on December 3 from 9 a.m.–7 p.m. at CCAR's headquarters located at 6821 Coit Road in Plano. All donations benefit the Children's Advocacy Center of Collin County and support our County's most vulnerable population.

Each year, more than 4,500 children are reported as abused or neglected in Collin County. And, this year's pandemic has had an even more drastic effect. Through the services provided at the Children's Advocacy Center of Collin County, these children are able to find safety, healing, and justice.

"No child should feel forgotten over the holidays, much less lack proper clothing or toys to play with. This is a great low-contact event that every North Texan can feel good about participating in. I encourage everyone who is able to make a donation to do so," said David Long, CCAR President.

Suggested donations include of any of these new items, with tags still attached: winter clothing (newborn-teen), coats, jeans, shoes, diapers, or toys. Monetary donations accepted in cash or checks made payable to "Children's Advocacy Center of Collin County;" 100% of all donations benefit the Children's Advocacy Center.

For those individuals who can't participate in the Holiday Drop & Dash, CCAR is hosting an online auction from November 30–December 3, in which all proceeds benefit the Children's Advocacy Center. Get your holiday shopping done early and help a child in the process, by visiting www.ccar.net/auction.
