FEBRUARY BREAKFAST FEATURED BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT BOARD PRESIDENT & CEO

On Tuesday, Feb. 14 the Chamber of Commerce of the Palm Beaches hosted the Economic Development Breakfast, featuring Kelly Smallridge, president & CEO of the Business Development Board of Palm Beach County

Smallridge highlighted businesses that were expanding or relocating to Palm Beach County. She spoke of the increased job opportunities, the need for housing expansion and the economic trends and market indicators.

We want to thank our presenting sponsor, Florida Atlantic University College of Business Education, as well as, Palm Beach International Boat Show, our parking sponsor and GL Homes, our corporate partner.

For more information about our March breakfast featuring UHealth, contact Rachel Quismundo at 561-421-5129 or rquismundo@palmbeaches.org.

TRUSTEE SPOTLIGHT

Kenneth Theriot

Kenneth Theriot is the executive director of TheRiot Agency and a graduate of the University of South Florida. Theriot's tenured experience of more than 20 years in strategic brand marketing and engagement activities, in both B2B and B2C roles, has provided him the opportunity to approach each challenge with pragmatic solutions that only come with his unique background. Since TheRiot Agency's (TRA) founding in 2015, Theriot has enjoyed building a technology-first growth agency that focuses on creative storytelling across multiple platforms. Leveraging his "a brand is more than a logo" philosophy has helped him build a team of passionate marketers, designers and technologists who have a passion for solving challenging issues and have fun doing it. Their process has proven to create scale and velocity to genuine brand engagement through the creation of high-value content to targeted audiences with a creative-inspired, data-directed and results oriented approach that provides tangible-results for those willing to invest in their brands.

February Trustee Luncheon

Congressman Bill Shuster, former representative of Pennsylvania's 9th Congressional District was the guest speaker at the February Trustee luncheon. Congressman Shuster served from 2001 to 2019 and chaired the House Transportation and Infrastructure Committee before his retirement from Congress. In his address to the Trustees, Congressman Shuster spoke about his motivation for seeking elected office, the changes that he observed during his time in office and his thoughts on what will happen in the current session.

For more information about the Trustee program, please contact Kirby Davis at kdavis@palmbeaches.org

Baseball Bash hits a home run!

The Chamber's annual Baseball Bash returned to Roger Dean Chevrolet stadium on Wednesday, Feb. 22. More than 150 fans received autographs from select Miami Marlins and St. Louis Cardinals players.

Presenting sponsor for the event was Cleveland Clinic, represented by Dr. Peter Evans and Outback Steakhouse provided dinner.

There was a silent auction for two autographed baseball jerseys, and guests were rewarded with a variety of raffle prizes throughout the evening.

Marlins general manager, Kim Ng presented the 2023 forecast.

Thank you to Cleveland Clinic, Florida Power and Light, and Outback

Steakhouse – PGA, for their partnership and special thanks to Roger Dean Chevrolet Stadium's staff and the Miami Marlins and the St. Louis Cardinals.

Proceeds from the Baseball Bash will go to the Marlins-Cardinals fund.

Nominations for the 2023 Business Awards begin March 6

The Chamber will start accepting nominations for the 2023 Business Awards beginning on March 6th. Awards will be presented at the annual Business Awards Breakfast on Friday, May 19. This year, awards will be presented for Business of the Year, Small Business Person of the Year, Non-Profit (Arts & Culture) of the Year, Leader of the Year, Health and Human Services Organization of the Year, Young Professional of the Year, and Diversity Organization of the Year.

Visit palmbeaches.org to nominate a business or person for the 2023 Business Awards. Please contact Rachel Quismundo at rquismundo@palmbeaches.org for sponsorship opportunities.

Leadership West Palm Beach City Center Day

Day 2 of Leadership West Palm Beach 2023 started with a walking tour, featuring large and bold art on city buildings and bridges by local artists. Following the art tour, the class went to the Mandell Library and City Hall. Faye Johnson, City Administrator, led a panel of five speakers in a discussion of local government and budgeting. The class concluded the day with a tour of the West Palm Beach Police Station where they were greeted by Chief Frank Adderley.

We would like to thank the day chairs, Jennifer Ferriol and Charity Lewis of the City of West Palm Beach for organizing Day 2 of the Leadership class of 2023.

Thanks also to our 2023 sponsor South University. For more information on Leadership West Palm Beach, contact Teri Page at tpage@palmbeaches.org.

YPOP Hotspot

The latest Hotspot for the Young Professionals of the Palm Beaches (YPOP) took place on Thursday, Feb. 9 at Isla & Co. in Grandview Marketplace. There was a raffle for two $50 gift cards, which were provided by the hosts and each attendee received a free coffee and cocktail card for their next visit. The night ended with live music, light bites, drinks, and plenty networking.

This event was held in partnership with the Black Chamber of Commerce of Palm Beach County.

For more information on future committee meetings, please contact Rachel Quismundo at rquismundo@palmbeaches.org

Hanley Foundation appoints Rachel Docekal as chief executive officer

West Palm Beach-based Hanley Foundation has announced that Rachel Pappert Docekal, MBA, Ed.D. will return to take the helm as the organization's Chief Executive Officer, effective March 1. Docekal will oversee Board and donor relations, while creating strategies to support Hanley's lifesaving programs and expansion initiatives.

Docekal had previously served as CEO of the Hanley Center Foundation, prior to founding the Lyrae Group and serving as its Managing Director. She has also held senior leadership roles at Nova Southeastern University, the University of Pittsburgh and the South Florida Science Museum. Docekal was named one of South Florida Business Journal's "25 Most Influential Women" in 2012.

Docekal is intimately involved in community service initiatives. She is a board member of the Economic Council of Palm Beach County co-chairing two of their policy committees, the chair-elect of Palm Beach County's Criminal Justice Commission, a past chairman of the Palm Beach North Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Mounts Botanical Garden Board of Directors. Dr. Docekal is a member of Leadership Florida's Cornerstone XXXVI Class and Leadership Palm Beach County Focus.

Hanley Foundation envisions a world free of addiction, leading the way as the largest provider of grant-funded prevention education programs in the State of Florida. Hanley Foundation's mission is to eliminate addiction through prevention, advocacy, treatment, and recovery support. In addition to offering recovery scholarships to those in need and facilitating trainings to identify the signs of substance misuse, the Foundation works to reduce stigma and inform policy through its advocacy efforts. Hanley Foundation educates, changes minds, and saves lives with its evidence-based programs proven through research to prevent and delay the use of alcohol and other drugs. For more information about Hanley Foundation, visit hanleyfoundation.org.
