Timothy C. Felice

Timothy C. Felice, founder and principal of Felice Trial Attorneys, (formerly Felice Law Group), is a highly skilled personal injury civil trial attorney dedicated to obtaining full justice for those who have suffered injury or loss of life due to the negligence of another person, company or defective product. Felice graduated magna cum laude from Florida Atlantic University in 2001. He continued his education at Nova Southeastern University, Shepard Broad Law Center and graduated in 2004. Felice was admitted to the Florida Bar and licensed to practice before all Florida State courts.

An aggressive, yet caring trial lawyer, Felice is passionate in his quest for full civil justice and has taught the intricacies of trial advocacy nationwide. He resides in Palm Beach Gardens with his wife, Jessica and his three children.

Kimberly Lea

Kimberly Lea, Ed.S., has over 30 years of higher education and leadership experience in Palm Beach County. As District Dean for Workforce Programs for Palm Beach State College, she aligns the needs of Palm Beach County through strategic partnerships in support of student success and employment. Lea also works with the Foundation at Palm Beach State College through Achieve Palm Beach County, which advocates, collaborates, and leads the community in creating an educational environment that supports all students in attaining credentials beyond high school graduation. She has served on local and national panels examining issues facing higher education, leadership, and workforce readiness, and is an active board member of several impactful organizations. Lea holds an Education Specialist Degree from Keiser University, a master's degree from Florida Atlantic University, and a bachelor's degree from Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania. She has received numerous awards for her community leadership, including the Women's Chamber of Commerce Giraffe Award and the Leadership Excellence Award from Leadership Palm Beach County. Lea lives in Jupiter and has four adult children who all live and work in Palm Beach County.

J. Duane Meeks

Since March 2022, J. Duane Meeks has served as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Potentia Academy. Dr. Meeks and his wife, Janice Meeks, founded Potentia Academy in 2009 as an education alternative for unique learners in middle and high school, most of whom are on the autism spectrum. Dr. Meeks served pro bono as Chair of the Board of Directors from its inception until his recent transition to day-to-day leadership of the school. Before joining Potentia Academy full time, he enjoyed a long and distinguished career in higher education and media production. From 2006 to 2020 Dr. Meeks was the Dean of the School of Communication and Media at Palm Beach Atlantic University. His final administrative role at the university was as Associate Provost for Strategic Innovation.

Register now for the June 15 Dennis Grady Golf Championship!

The Chamber's Annual Golf Tournament is one of our most popular events attracting a wide range of decision makers and community leaders in Palm Beach County. Come out to network with like-minded individuals and compete for the honor of having your company's name engraved on the Dennis Grady Golf Championship Trophy. A photo of the winning team will also be featured in the Business Watch section of the Palm Beach Post.

Leadership Palm Beach County Western Communities Day

The 2023 class of Leadership West Palm Beach enjoyed Western Communities Day on Wednesday, March 1. The group started the day with breakfast at Fire Station 7, followed by a tour of the facilities at the Ballpark of the Palm Beaches. At Fire Station 5, they watched an extrication demonstration and met Phire, the station's search and rescue dog. During their visit to the Solid Waste Authority, they discussed the importance of proper recycling.

The day ended at Grassy Waters Preserve where the group was treated to private air boat rides, walked the nature trail and learned about the area's plant and animal life. A special thanks to our Day Chair, Fire Chief Diana Matty and our sponsor, South University.

For more information about Leadership West Palm Beach, contact Teri Page at tpage@palmbeaches.org
