The Come Back Kits are a project of four Lorain County Main Street organizations.

Local donations helped fill the Oberlin kits.

Pradnya Martz donated $500 for masks.

Pat Serio made masks for the kits.

Amherst & Lorain helpers loaded multiple boxes of supplies into Larry Funk's van.

Oberlin helpers unloaded the boxes of supplies into Oberlin Cable Co-op and put together 100 Come Back Kits.

Picking up kit supplies in Amherst.

Delivering kit supplies in Oberlin.

Putting the kits together.

We are thankful for all the help on this project. We are thankful to you – Oberlin's businesses - for weathering the COVID-19 storm.

Please let us know if there are other ways OBP can help.

Here's wishing us all better days ahead, Janet Haar
