PRESS RELEASE

PARKLAND COUNTY, March 12, 2020 - The Greater Parkland Regional Chamber of Commerce announces today that all Chamber events are being postponed until further notice due to COVID - 19. This includes tonight's State of the Region Address as well as reoccurring events such as Shameless Plug and Chamber on Tap. The Annual General Meeting for the Stony Plain & District Chamber of Commerce which was planned for March 19 is also postponed.

A separate press release will be released regarding the procedures and logistics of postponing the Tri-Expo & MARKETPLACE which is currently planned for April 3 -5 at the TransAlta Tri-Leisure Centre in Spruce Grove.

We have taken the educated direction from the World Health Organization and followed the example set by the Canadian Chamber of Commerce who is also cancelling and postponing events.

The Chamber appreciates the understanding and support of our community partners and membership at this time.
