

Annually, the York Region Chamber of Commerce honors an outstanding business located in the York Region with an award presented by mid-November. The "Business of the Year" award recognizes notable entrepreneurial and business accomplishments. Chamber members nominate eligible businesses for this award based on the following criteria. Businesses are allowed to nominate themselves. The York Region Chamber Board of Directors selects the final recipient.

The Process:

Business nominees;

- Must be a member of the York Region Chamber of Commerce for at least (3) years.
- Contributes and promotes the economic growth, stability and improvement of the area which the York Region Chamber serves.
- Gives generously of themselves and/or staff in time and resources to the Chamber of Commerce and the local community.
- Businesses may be nominated by an owner, employee or other individual.

Deadline for business nominations is October 1, 2021. Winner will honored at the November Awards Business After Hours event, date to be determined.
