

2022 VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR

Volunteers are essential for many non-profit organizations!

Generous with their time and talents, volunteers bring light and life to many incredible charitable/non-profit organizations and community endeavors. The York Region Chamber of Commerce takes pride in recognizing these individuals for their valuable contributions to our local non-profits and the community.

The award will focus on individuals that contribute to a particular event, a particular goal, or a certain number of hours or years of service donated to a non-profit organization. The awards can be given to an individual or a team.

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS: October 1, 2022. All nominee forms will be reviewed and voted on by the chamber's board of directors. The volunteer/volunteers will be celebrated at the annual awards business after hours, (date TBD). If you have any questions about this award, please contact Holly Roberts at 207-363-4422 or holly@yorkme.org.

Please mail your nominee information to:
