

Chamber Ambassador Scholarship- Freeborn County

For students planning to attend Riverland Community College.

DESCRIPTION

The Albert Lea-Freeborn County Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors are a group of local businesspeople giving back to our community. They go out each week and welcome new businesses to the community as well as celebrate additions or expansions to existing businesses. Funds for the scholarships are raised through the annual Chamber Ambassador Golf Outing held each July.

The scholarship committee will evaluate all applications and personally interview the finalists. Payments will be made to Riverland Community College, upon receipt of student's first semester's official transcript (GPA of at least 2.5 required). Scholarships must be claimed within 18 months from the date the scholarship was awarded.
