Rainmaking Using Zoom focuses on the “Secrets of Zoom Etiquette” and “Making the Most of Your Zoom Meetings”. Scott highlights both good and bad examples to illustrate the benefits of taking the time to properly set up your Zoom studio. Then once your studio is set up, he covers topics such as where should you look, what should you wear, how should you sit, how the people on the meeting are interpreting your body language, and even how to effectively network using Zoom.

TOPICS PRESENTED:

- Creating Your Zoom Studio
- Lights / Camera / Action
- Test How You Look Each Meeting
- Body Language
- Successful Networking Tips
- War Stories
