	1:30 PM-3:00 PM	Faculty Forum I: The Faculty Forum @CCID is a mainstay of CCID's annual conference and an opportunity to share the good news of internationalization on your campus and return with renewed energy. Designed specifically for faculty, the Forum is about building community: through curated round table discussions, we share stories, learn about creative initiatives, and network with colleagues from all over the world.
	1:30 PM-3:00 PM	Pre-Conference Workshop (registration required): A Future-Ready Workforce: Preparing Students for Work in a Global Economy Internationalization of course content can help community colleges meet goals of diversity, equity and inclusion while simultaneously training highly skilled, employees ready to work in a global environment. This session, appropriate for community college technical faculty as well as administrators, will provide an overview of how to align the learning goals of technical programs and international workforce needs and how to start integrating global content into what is already being taught in courses. Internationalization begins with understanding your students' diverse experiences and this interactive workshop will also introduce the Global Social Justice Framework for educators and provide tools to integrate student experience and learning into classes. Bring a syllabus that you would like to internationalize with you. Facilitator: Heather Singmaster, Director, Career & Technical Education, Asia Society for Global Education
	1:30 PM-5:00 PM
		Pre-Conference Workshop (registration required): Education for a Deep Culture Experience—A Cognitive Process Approach Facilitator: Dr. Joseph Shaules Joseph Shaules (PhD) has worked in intercultural education in Japan, Mexico and Europe for more than 25 years. He is a Specially Appointed Professor at Keio University (GIC Program), and teaches at the Tsudajuku University graduate TESOL program. He is also the Japan Specialist for Intercultures, a consulting and training company based in Germany. He is widely published. His books include: Language, Culture and the Embodied Mind (Springer), The Intercultural Mind: Connecting Culture, Cognition and Global Living (Intercultural Press), Identity (Oxford University Press), Deep Culture: The Hidden Challenges of International Living (Multilingual Matters) and Beneath the Surface: The Beginner's Guide to the Deep Culture Experience.
