

2023 Young Professional of the Year

Brooke Braswell

Brooke Braswell is your local Sumter, SC born and raised friendly Realtor that is committed to serving her clients and community. Fortunately, Brooke was able to find her passion early in life, starting her career at Re/Max Summit at the age of 19. She has continually thrived and broken through many barriers in her field of expertise, to include becoming the #1 realtor at her company before the age of 25 and has held this position for consecutive years. She was the best of Sumter Realtor for 2021, the number 11 Realtor of the whole RE/MAX franchise and is still maintaining being a top 3% agent in her region.

Brooke overseas, plans, and maintains sales of several new construction Great Southern Homes Communities in the Sumter area. In addition to being a very committed and driven Realtor, she is an extremely passionate and caring community liaison. You can find Brooke fulfilling her roles as a Young Professionals Board Member, with the Diversity Equity and Inclusion Committee for The Sumter Board of Realtors, and being actively involved in the Sumter and Columbia BIA and Chambers. Brooke is also an avid volunteer ranging from the American Heart Association, Habitat for Humanity, Feed My Starving Children, Camp Cole, and being a Camp Counselor for the Resiliency Camp for Shaw AFB children.

Currently Brooke is collaborating with Shaw AFB on the civilian side to help plan, fundraise, and execute the Out of The Darkness Suicide Prevention Walk that will be held at Patriot Park later this year. Brooke is also beginning to navigate the entrepreneur world, managing several Airbnb's, and planning to open/be a partner in various companies by mid-2022. Most recently she was named REMAX Summit's for Realtor of the Year 2022.
