

2023 Middle School Educator of the Year

Chase Ferguson

Chase has served as a city police officer and a reserve Naval officer and is involved in his church, Christ Community Church. He has also previously volunteered as a Sea Cadet Instructor. Chase is an ambassador for Alice Drive Middle School. He takes the time to build a relationship with each of his students. Chase has taken on the additional roles of teaching writing to the English I students in the absence of a teacher.

He is a wonderful role model for his students and shows great character in his classroom and promotes an awesome classroom environment. Students look up to him and seek advice from him.

Mr. Ferguson was nominated by not only a colleague, but also one of his students!
